

COLORADO COLLEGE

Sponsored by Dean of Students' Office, Campus Activities,
Office of Minority and International Students.
Reception sponsored by the First Mondays Committee.

COLORADO COLLEGE

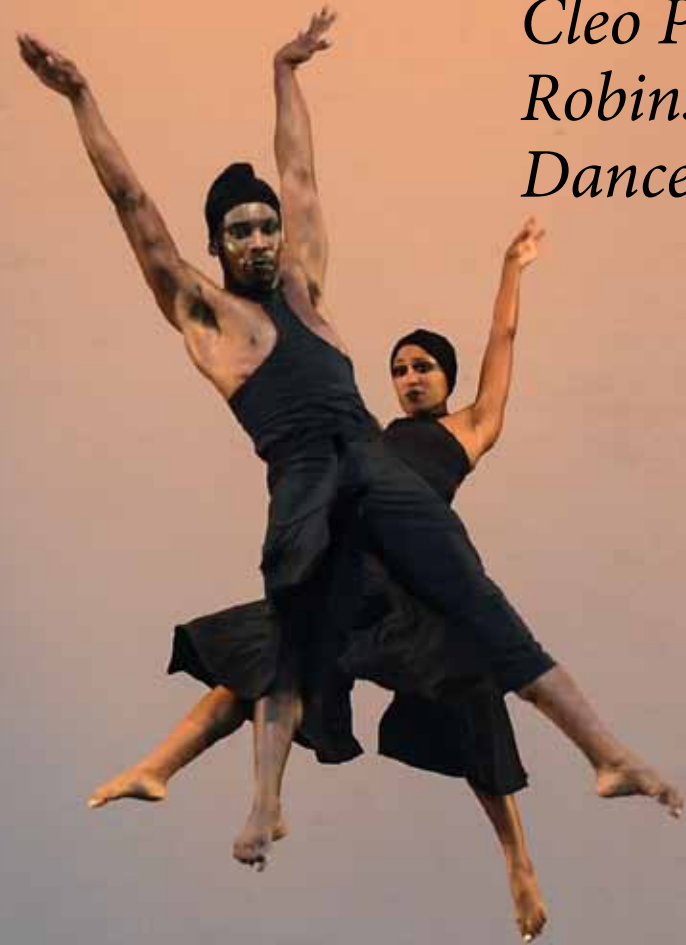

CELEBRATE THE LEGACY OF

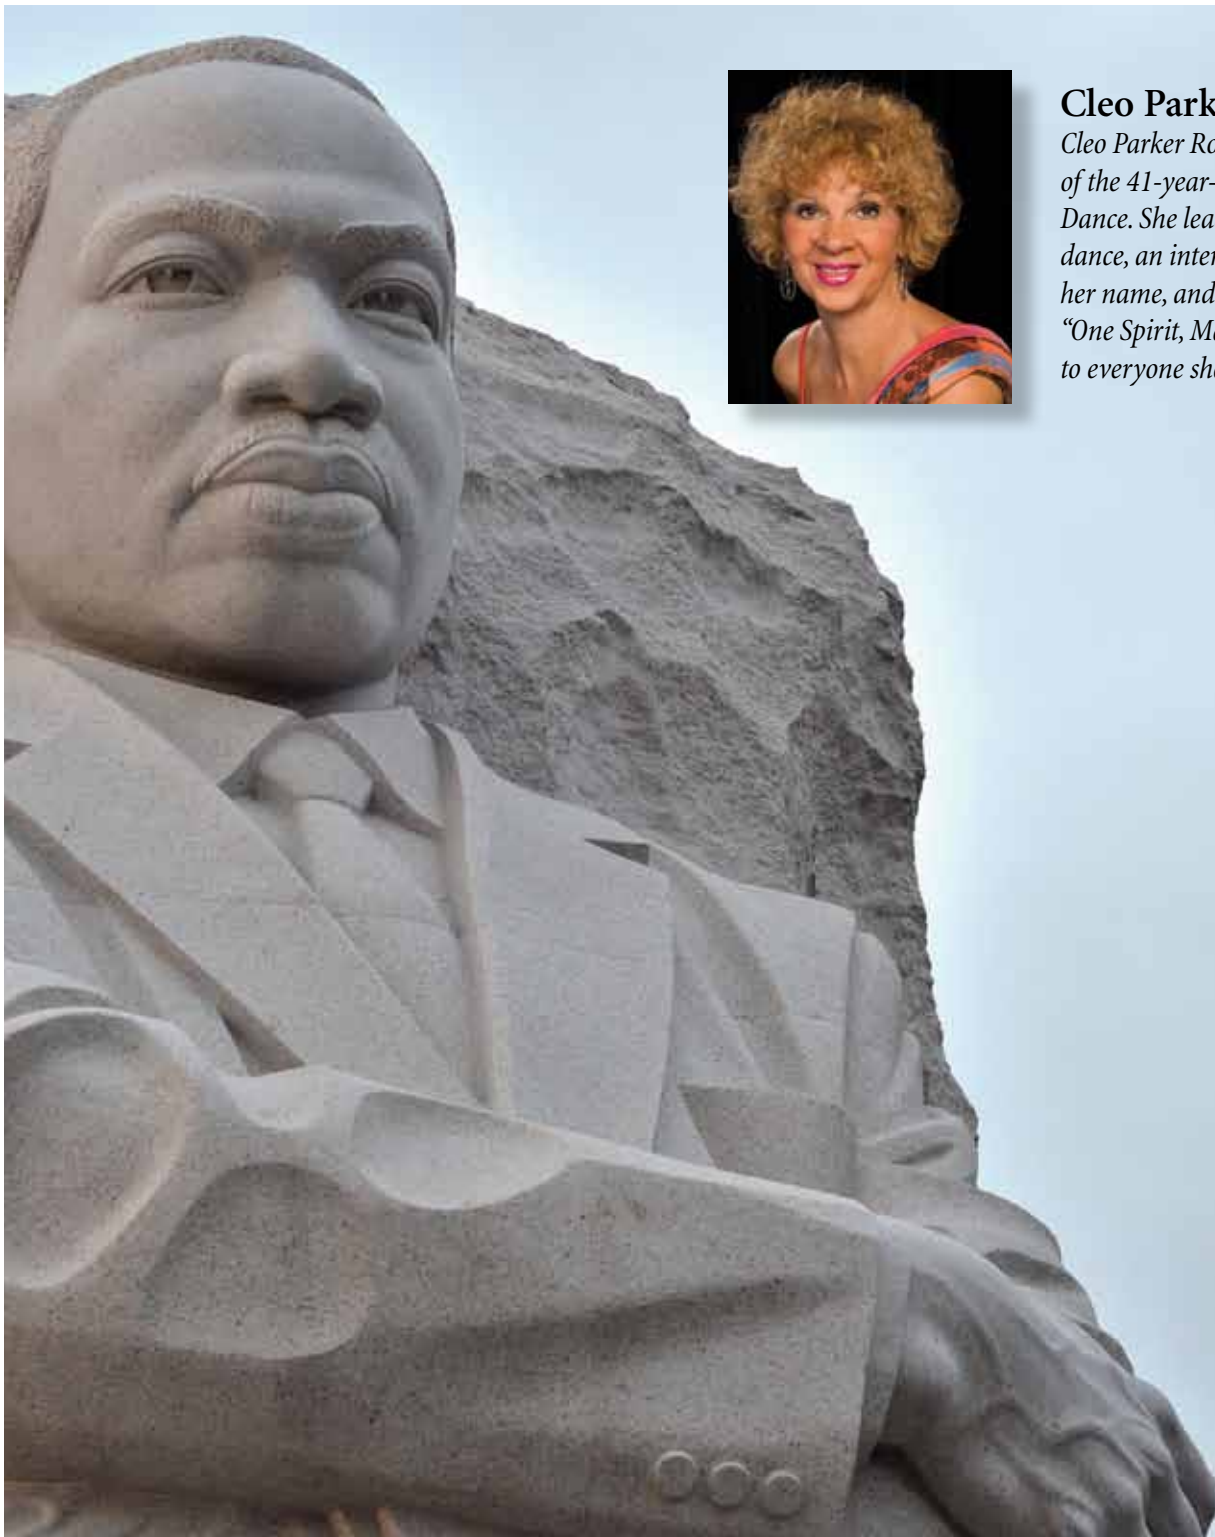

Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr.

—Monday January 21, 2013 • 7 p.m.—

Armstrong Theatre

*Cleo Parker
Robinson
Dance*

Cleo Parker Robinson Dance

Cleo Parker Robinson is founder, executive artistic director, and choreographer of the 41-year-old Denver-based artistic institution, Cleo Parker Robinson Dance. She leads a professional dance ensemble, youth ensemble, a school of dance, an international summer dance institute, a 300-seat theatre that bears her name, and a myriad of community outreach programs. Her philosophy of “One Spirit, Many Voices” is reflected in all she does, and is the vision she brings to everyone she meets, everywhere she goes.

— PROGRAM —

A&B Selections

Colorado Springs Chapter Choir of the Gospel Music Workshop of America Inc. Musicians: Rev. Dennis Mose, John Bowen and Clyde Williams. Chapter Representative: Dr. Evangelist P.M. Wynn-Grove. Minister of Music: Elder Anthony Bell Sr.

Introduction

Jill Tiefenthaler,
President, Colorado College

Remarks

Cleo Parker Robinson

Cleo Parker Robinson Dance

A&B Selections
Choir

Reception follows in Armstrong Great Hall