

Colorado College Student Government Association

2012-2013 Student Trustee Election

February 20, 2012

Dear potential candidate for the 2012-13 Colorado College Student Trustee:

Thank you for your interest in serving Colorado College! In this letter we hope to give you a better understanding of the role of the Student Trustee position, eligibility requirements and responsibilities so you enter this election wisely. The Colorado College Student Government Association (CCSGA) oversees the election phase of selecting the student trustee, but please note the Student Trustee is not a member of the CCSGA. Below are important details concerning the student trustee position.

Student Trustee

Term: One year—From Commencement Day after election to Commencement Day the following year.

Election: Candidates for the Student Trustee position will compete in an open and election amongst Colorado College student. The CCSGA Election Committee manages the election and it will be the same as the election for the CCSGA executive council positions.

Please note that the election is to determine three finalists for the position, who are the top three vote-receiving candidates from the election. These three finalists are eligible for selection as the student trustee by the Board of Trustee Governance Committee. The Governance Committee will selection the Student Trustee from the three finalist based off the election results, resumes, application strength, and, if they choose, interviews.

Responsibilities: The Board of Trustees is the body that oversees the activities of Colorado College. Campus administration, including President Jill Tiefenthaler, report to the Board of Trustees. As such, final authority over the direction of the college rests with them. The Student Trustee is a full time, voting member of the Colorado College Board of Trustees. During the student trustees one-year term they will be held to the same standards as all other voting member trustee. They will serve on Board of Trustee committees and participate in all Board activities.

The Student Trustee is expected to attend and fully participate in all Board of Trustee meetings and functions.

PART V.

2012-2013 Executive Council and Student Trustee Election Rules

The Election of the 2012-2013 Student Trustee shall be held ONLINE and in Worner on Thursday March 8th, 2012. All students of The Colorado College will receive an email from the CCSGA on Thursday morning with a link to the Survey Monkey poll for the election and may vote UNTIL 7PM that evening. Each student will be able to vote for ONE candidate for each council position. The following are the official election rules for the 2012 CCSGA Executive Council Elections.

1. A meeting of all the candidates will be held on Friday, February 24th, 2012 at 5:00PM in Worner 213. This mandatory meeting for all candidates will be to review the election rules and timeline and answering questions.
2. Campaigning begins Friday February 24th, 2012 at 7:00pm. From this time on, posters can be hung, Facebook ads can run, pamphlets can be handed out, etc. Before this time absolutely NO CAMPAIGNING CAN OCCUR except for simple verbal campaigning (i.e. CC Student A: "How's it going?" Candidate #1 "Everything's swell. Did you know that I'm running for (insert position) next week?")
3. Negative campaigning is absolutely prohibited. Campaigning in poor taste like personal attacks or demeaning caricatures is obviously illegal but to ensure that no issues of any kind arise, YOU MAY NOT EVEN REFERENCE YOUR OPPONENTS in your campaigning. As important as it may seem, this is college student government not a national presidential campaign. Keep it clean.
4. Campaigns may not violate college policy. Period. Please use common sense; anything that would make the administration cringe is not only not going to get you elected but will get you removed from the ballot and potentially force you to face consequences beyond the CCSGA.
5. Campaigning in the Election Zones must end at 8:00am on Thursday March 8th, 2012. The first Election Zone is from Cache la Poudre to the path that runs into Cossitt and from north bound Cascade to the path running between Worner and Honnen. Basically the Worner Center and the second election zone being all non-partisan tables staffed by the election commission. (i.e. lounges and outside of major dorms) These areas must be completely clear of campaign materials like posters, pamphlets INCLUDING T-SHIRTS, PINS AND ANYTHING ANYONE might bring in. The CCSGA will have several laptops set up in Perkins Lounge and around campus to remind/show students how to vote from around 12:00-1:00PM and again from 5:30-7:00PM.
6. Large posters must be removed from Worner by Wednesday March 7th, 2012 at 11:59PM. No large posters hanging in Worner day of the election.
7. Candidates may not be anywhere near students while they are voting. Students may vote from nearly any computer on campus. Therefore, candidates may not influence votes by being near students while they vote. (i.e. not in election zones.)
8. Partisan tables are prohibited.
9. Worner Box Campaigning is prohibited. This isn't our rule it's the mailrooms but every candidate must abide by it. If you want to reach the student body you're going to have to be creative.
10. Be careful of online campaigning. Campaigning online is not prohibited but candidates must exercise caution when doing so. Anything posted online (Facebook, MySpace, emails, websites, blogs or anything else) under your name (even if it's not you) falls under the same scrutiny of all other types of campaigning.
11. Posters cannot be hung in Rastall, The Preserve, Benjaminn's or Colorado Coffee, or the TV's in Worner. Bon Appetit doesn't want it and we'd like to keep eating a "politically neutral" time.
12. Do not tape posters to the ground anywhere. This is a new ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act) rule this year, which applies to all student organizations so we'd like to set the example.

13. Each candidate will have $50 to spend on their campaign provided by CCSGA. All campaign expenditures must be recorded on the sheet provided (with receipts if available) and turned into the Worner Desk by 7:00pm on Thursday March 8th, 2012. Printing from the library is free and colored paper is available in the Book Store for cheap.
14. You can't accept any donations. Please ask someone on the commission if you have any questions about this rule.
15. 50 student signatures must be collected by the Campaign Rules Meeting on Friday Feb. 24th at 5:00PM. In order to be considered a candidate, you must present all signatures to the Election Commission.
16. Candidates must check with their RLC before campaigning in any on-campus housing building. Every RLC has a different policy regarding posters and soliciting votes in common areas. Just ask them before you do anything they might have a problem with. We will be emailing the ballot to all RLC's so they will know who you are.
17. Candidates must include on every campaign poster the following information: Including this information not only helps us increase voter turnout but is your advantage.

To vote simply click the link in the email from the CCSGA you will receive on Thursday March 8th. You may vote once from any computer until 7PM Thursday. Questions? Problems? Email ccsga@coloradocollege.edu

Violation of ANY of these rules may result in the disqualification of your candidacy.

Any complaints or reports of election rules violations should be submitted to:

Arielle.rocca@coloradocollege.edu

Winning. As mandated by the CCSGA Constitution, a candidate from any district position needs only to win a simple majority (more than 50%) to hold office. The candidate who wins the most votes for each council position will hold office.

Run-off Elections. If one candidate does not receive more than 50% of the vote then a run-off election will be held the following Monday. We will give you more information if such an election is necessary.
