Ta- Nahesi Coates discussion

- a. breaking into small groups to discuss how to make this event better than ever
- i. group 4: handouts in worner, how to hold people accountable? giving the book to clubs who would want to read the book e.g. butler center, use RAs and make it mandatory for them. Book share in worner
- i. group 3: promoting through classes with relationship to the book, maybe use articles instead of just the book. use reslife to start book clubs or make the book a hall programme
- i. group 2: host pre discussion/ event during fourth block with faculty members who study the same field as coates. After the pannel students get the book. set up a mini presentation on slides in worner, then reflect and get a book in return
- r. group 1: want to reach out to the bigger campus. have a book club series
 - b. hand out book end of third/ fourth block
 - c. have a big event then smaller events

Heads of State Representatives Bill

- a. motion to suspend the rules in order to read
 - b. explanation- what is the role of heads of state. They only have one vote as a unit, unclear about what role the reps play.
 - c. intent: rationalize the butler center rep role not only with numbers, but with more voting power, add more reps so they can represent a broader range of students
 - d. voting on bill as it stands: yes: 9 no: 6
 - e. amendment ideas- three reps instead of four
