MARTHA WORKNEH WOLDAY, ECONOMICS '14

Senior Consultant // Booz Allen Hamilton

Martha Workneh Wolday graduated in 2014 with a BA in Economics. She started her career in Los Angeles as a Management Consultant. The project-based structure of the consulting industry, which mirrors the structure of the Block Plan, was an ideal environment for her to continue refining the critical assessment and problem solving skills she developed throughout her time at the college. She simultaneously developed and launched a college preparatory program for underserved, high achieving high school students, The Tens Scholars, of which she is Founder and Co-Director. She is now a Senior Consultant at Booz Allen Hamilton.

While at CC, Martha served as a member of President Jill Tiefenthaler's Strategic Plan Committee. Martha was involved with various student led organizations such as the Black Student Union (BSU) and the Colorado College Student Government Association (CCSGA).

Meet Martha in Block 7 // April 3, 12:15 // Career Center

Martha is part of the 5 Under 25 series from the Career Center, which features CC alumni under the age of 25 in a variety of fields.
