Application Deadline:	March 1, 2021
Applicant Notification of Admission Decision:	March 15, 2021
Acceptance, Waiver, and Payment Due:	April 1, 2021

Mountain Design Assembly is open to students and recent graduates from all undergraduate and graduate schools, regardless of major or degree. No experience with design or construction is necessary. The program fee for MDA 2021 is $1,750.00 (Middlebury College and Columbia University/Barnard College students see below). All instruction, logistics, and costs between arrival on the first day and departure on the last day are covered by the program fee. Participants are responsible for their own travel to and from Vermont, and any accommodations before or after the program.

Applicants are encouraged to inquire with their home institutions about possible funding assistance. Past participants have secured academic grants, internship funding, and other forms of financial aid.

Middlebury College and Columbia University/Barnard College applicants: Donors supporting your institutions have established scholarship funds to cover a portion of your program fee. Please email info@mcleodkredell.com for details.

Applicants should be aware that Mountain Design Assembly will take place in a rugged, remote location. Participants will need to sign a Release and Indemnity Agreement, and will be asked to disclose any allergies or special dietary requirements, before the program begins.
