

Teacher of the Year Nomination Form (2024)

Colorado Classics Association

The Colorado Classics Association Teacher of the Year Award is intended to recognize sustained and distinguished teaching in the field of Classics and service to CCA and the broader Classics profession.

Eligibility: Preference is given to candidates who have been members of the CCA in good standing for at least three years. Candidates must be teachers of classical languages or classical humanities, broadly defined, in a K-12 environment, working in Colorado. Current Co-Presidents are not eligible while serving, but all other CCA officers are.

Selection: One recipient will be selected each year by a committee consisting of current CCA members as designated by the CCA Co-Presidents. The selection committee should consist of three members, with preference given to retired teachers and former winners of the award. Committee members will serve for three-year terms and every effort should be made to stagger these so that only one new member is added to the committee each year. Recipients will be recognized and have their awards presented to them by the CCA Co-Presidents at the spring meeting of the CCA.

Nominations / deadline: Only nominations submitted using this form will be accepted. These should be sent via email to CCA Co-President Carole E. Newlands (carole.newlands@colorado.edu) or Elizabeth Bowman (elizabeth.bowman@jeffco.k12.co.us) by January 1, 2024. Self-nominations are not permitted, but an individual may contact an administrator, supervisor, fellow teacher, CCA member, student, or parent and request to be nominated.

Renewal: Once submitted, nominations will be kept active for three consecutive years, unless the nominator wishes to withdraw the nomination and states this in an email or letter. Nominators are encouraged to update nominations during this period with new or supplemental information in order to improve the nominee's prospects.

Award: Winners will receive $100 and a framed certificate of the award
